Technical Meeting « Novelties in Elastomers and Regulations »

Thursday, December 7th, 2023
(Le 253, Paris 10^e)

Since the beginning of the decade, the elastomer industry has been living in an ever more rapidly changing context: environmental awareness, energy efficiency, tougher demands from customers and principals, difficult supplies, the price of materials and substances, the health crisis, In addition, national and European regulations are becoming increasingly stringent, both for our materials and for the systems that use them!

The polymer and elastomer industry continues to adapt to these new challenges. It will do everything in its power to prepare and ensure the future of our indispensable materials!
